Few venture to this modest shrine located just outside Omaha, perched on the brink of the Northwest Death Zone.
This shrine was established by the Great Guru Ahriman as a tribute to the renowned Jedi Refugees he brought to the planet.

These figures played pivotal roles in leading Ahriman's off-world mercenaries during his ascent to power amid the Great Social Reset Revolution.
From the protracted conflicts against the Antifa Militia to the climactic invasion of the Republic of Texas, ROT's forces—comprising the ROT National Guard, unemployed cartel militia, and former Republic of Mexico Special Forces—sought to reclaim Oklahoma's oil fields and seize the newly constructed Saint Louis International Seaport, a project undertaken by Chinese contractors and traders from the Free Nations Confederation.

I have frequently shared my personal experiences from this tumultuous period, and while I was unfortunate enough to find myself in the wrong place at the wrong time, I won't overwhelm you with a detailed account of the hardships faced by the renowned warriors who accepted Ahriman's offer of refuge for themselves and their families, escaping the outstanding warrants issued by the Imperial Criminal Court and the Empire's Justice Department.

Instead, I invite you to consider the complexities of their choices and the weight of their circumstances.
The shrine now stands largely devoid of the treasures it once housed, with only a few walls adorned by the faded portraits of the fallen Jedi Refugees.
I had the remarkable chance to participate in a scientific expedition organized by the New Tulsa Government, venturing to the edge of the Death Zone.

Our mission was to assess the potential for reclaiming the lower regions of this dangerous area. During our journey, we set up camp in the shrine's enclosed courtyard, both on our way to the site and again on our return. Once a symbol of grandeur, the shrine now stands as a dilapidated, charred remnant, a stark reminder of the devastation wrought by the notorious General Lloyd Austin Bio-gender brigade and their reckless deployment of nuclear weapons, salvaged from abandoned missile silos near Omaha, has left this structure as a haunting testament to the catastrophic consequences of unchecked power and ambition. I will conclude this account here, as I risk delving into an extensive discussion about the urgent need to hold General Austin and his brigade accountable for their actions within their self-styled domain around the former Raytheon Missile Plant in Tucson. Their heinous crimes against humanity, including the catastrophic destruction of Salt Lake City due to the city's leadership's acceptance of a widely

Additionally, the EMP attacks on Ahriman's Army have plunged much of America back into a near primitive state, underscoring the necessity for a Free Nation Tribunal to address these egregious offenses.
I would like to draw your attention to the urgent situation faced by the remaining Jedi Refugees as they navigate their struggles with the New Tulsa Government.
These individuals are fighting for their rights to long-term disability and health coverage, a battle exacerbated by the use of Jedi mind control technologies, particularly the notoriously illegal "Vulcan Mind Melt."

These techniques, employed during interrogations of CIS Humans, have resulted in permanent brain trauma for many Jedi Refugees, stemming from an unrecognized configuration of the CIS Human mind that inadvertently inflicted serious damage to the Jedi's brain. It is crucial that we recognize and address these injustices to ensure that those who have suffered are granted the support and care they deserve.

Representatives from the National Federation of Jedi Refugees assert that the administrative team of Ahriman, known as the WEF Goonies, was fully aware of the impending danger yet chose not to inform Jedi Commanders about this significant threat.

This negligence raises serious concerns about their commitment to the safety and well-being of the Jedi community.

The New Tulsa Government asserts that it bears no responsibility for the actions of the former Ahriman Government.

They further contend that, even if accountability were applicable, the legal classification of Jedi Refugees was that of contract workers, thereby disqualifying them from any rights to health care or pension benefits.

As the legal struggle approaches its tenth year, it is crucial for us to unite in support of the Jedi Refugees, regardless of personal opinions about them.

healthcare deserves our attention and advocacy, highlighting the importance of compassion and solidarity in the face of adversity. As we wrap up our show, Brother Boba Fett Jr. will be circulating the collection plate, and I urge you to tap into your generous spirit and contribute to this worthy cause. Keep in mind that all donations, after covering our necessary administrative expenses, will be directed entirely to the Jedi Refugee Defense Funds. Your support is invaluable!
